General conditions

1 Failure to fairly present the risk

It is Your duty to make a fair presentation of Your business to Us. If You fail to do this and the failure is deliberate or reckless We may

- refuse all claims
- cancel the policy from the beginning and retain all premiums paid.

If the failure is non-deliberate or non-reckless We may

- cancel the policy from the beginning but We will refund Your premium
- apply different terms which may proportionately affect any claim payment.

2 Reasonable Care

You shall

- (a) take all reasonable precautions to prevent accident(s) Damage or Bodily Injury
- (b) exercise reasonable care in seeing that all statutory and other obligations and regulations are observed and complied with
- (c) maintain the Farm works machinery and plant in sound condition

If any defect is discovered by complaint or otherwise You shall take immediate steps to remedy the defect and in the meantime take such temporary precautions as the circumstances may require

On discovering that an animal has sustained injury illness or disease You must immediately obtain the services of a veterinary surgeon at Your own expense and ensure that the injured ill or diseased animal is properly treated

A separate 'Reasonable care' condition applies to Section C Environmental Damage and is detailed in that section

(b) Applicable to Section B Public & Products Liability Section C Environmental Damage Section D Employers Liability and Section I Money (excluding the assault extension)

If at the time of any claim arising under this policy You are or would but for the existence of this policy be entitled to indemnity under any other policy or policies We shall not be liable except in respect of any additional amount beyond the amount which would have been payable under such other policy or policies had this insurance not been effected

5 Fraudulent Claims

If You make any claim which is fraudulent or false no payment shall be made. We may, by giving notice to You, cancel the policy with effect from the date of the fraudulent act.

6 Cancellation

There is a 14 day cooling off period from the date You receive your documents. If You decide to cancel the policy during this time or at any stage during Your policy year, We will only charge You for the time on cover unless a claim has been made in which case We will keep the full premium.

We may cancel your policy by sending at least seven days' notice in writing by recorded delivery to Your last known address. We will only charge You for the time on cover unless a claim has been made in which case We will keep the full premium.

7 Adjustment of Premium

If any part of the premium has been calculated on estimates You shall within 30 days from the expiry of each period of insurance supply to Us such information as We may require

The premium for such period will be adjusted and the difference paid by or allowed to You subject to any minimum premium

8 Changes to Premium

If You make a change in the policy cover and it results in a charge or a refund for the period up to the renewal date of the policy then any charge or refund will only be made or given by Us if it exceeds £6

9 Right to Survey

We have the right to carry out a survey of the Farm for the purposes of verifying the information provided to Us and to identify areas where risk improvements may be required

A separate 'Inspections surveys & audits' condition applies to the Environmental Damage cover and is detailed in that section

10 Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

A person or company who is not a party to this policy has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this policy but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act

11 Index Linking

We will automatically adjust the sums insured for Your Buildings in line with changes in suitable indices of cost. This adjustment will continue after any insured Damage provided that the work of repair or reinstatement is done without delay

Section A – General

Data Protection - Information Uses

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation, the Data Controller in relation to any personal data you supply is The Cornish Mutual Assurance Company Ltd.

Below you will find a summary of the key elements of our Privacy Policy describing how we use the personal data you supply to us. For a full copy of the Privacy Policy please visit our website at www.cornishmutual.co.uk/privacy-policy or you can contact us to request a copy.

What information we collect

In order to assess the terms of the insurance contract or administer claims which arise, we collect personal information such as your full name, address and date of birth. We also collect sensitive personal information only where necessary such as your health conditions or criminal convictions.

We may also collect information from sources such as social media, third party databases available to the insurance industry, loss adjusters or other suppliers appointed in the process of handling a claim.

Using and sharing your data for insurance administration purposes

Information you supply may be used for the purposes of insurance administration by Cornish Mutual, our reinsurers and associated service providers such as vehicle breakdown, home emergency or legal advisors. It may be disclosed to regulatory bodies for the purposes of monitoring and/or enforcing our regulatory responsibilities. Your information may also be used for offering renewals, research and statistical purposes and crime prevention.

Your information may be passed on to other parties where this is necessary to help deal with your claim or allow you to benefit from additional services such as vehicle breakdown, home emergency, credit hire, vehicle repairs or legal advice. Where we discuss your claim with other insurers we will only disclose the necessary information. Cornish Mutual or its agents may undertake checks against publicly available information (such as county court judgments, bankruptcy orders or repossessions).

Using and sharing your data for marketing and marketing research purposes

The Cornish Mutual Assurance Co. Ltd may use your information to keep you informed by post, telephone, email or other means about products and services which may be of interest to you.

We may also send your data to a market research company to enable independent research to improve our service to you. This will not be used to promote services of other companies or third parties. Your information may also be disclosed and used for these purposes after your policy has lapsed.

If you do not wish your information to be used for these purposes please contact us at Cornish Mutual, CMA House, Newham Road, Truro, TR1 2SU on 01872 277151 or email: askus@cornishmutual.co.uk.

Accessing your data

In the case of personal data, with limited exceptions, you have the right to access and if necessary rectify information held about you.

You can find full details of this process on our website.

In specific circumstances, you may make a request to have your personal data erased. There are reasons why a request may not be upheld, such as:

- You may want to make a future claim, so we need to be able to find your records.
- Insurance companies share data about policies and claims to prevent fraud.

If you would like to access or erase your personal data please contact us at Cornish Mutual on 01872 277151 or askus@cornishmutual.co.uk or by writing to CMA House, Newham Road, Truro TR1 2SU.

Fraud Prevention

Insurers pass information to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register, run by the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB). The aim is to help us check information provided and also to prevent fraudulent claims. When we deal with your request for insurance, we may search these Registers. Under the conditions of your policy, you must tell us about any incident (such as an accident or theft) which may or may not give rise to a claim. When you tell us about an incident, we may pass information relating to it to the Registers.

Privacy statement - ARAG

This is a summary of how ARAG collect, use, share and store personal information. To view ARAG's full privacy statement please see our website www.arag.co.uk

Collecting personal information

ARAG may be required to collect certain personal or sensitive information which may include name, address and date of birth and if appropriate medical information. We will hold and process any such information in accordance with all relevant data protection regulations and legislation. Should we ask for personal or sensitive information, we undertake that it shall only be used in accordance with our privacy statement.

We may also collect information for other parties such as suppliers we appoint to process the handling of a claim.

Using personal or sensitive information

The reason we collect personal or sensitive information is to fulfil our contractual and regulatory obligations in providing this insurance product, for example to process premium or handle a claim. To fulfil these obligations, we may need to share personal or sensitive information with other organisations.

We will not disclose personal or sensitive information for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was collected. Please refer to our full privacy statement for full details.

Keeping personal information

We shall not keep personal information for any longer than necessary.

Your rights

Any person insured by this policy have a number of rights in relation to how we hold personal data including; the right to a copy of the personal data we hold; the right to object to the use of personal data or the withdrawal of previously given consent; the right to have personal data deleted. For a full list of privacy rights and when we will not be able to delete personal data please refer to our full privacy statement.
