4. Rights of Third Parties

A person or company who was not a party to the policy has no right under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of your policy but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from the Act or any subsequent legislation.

5. Cancelling your Policy

(a) Your right to cancel

There is a 14 day cooling off period from the date you receive your documents. If you decide to cancel the Policy during this time we will refund your premium provided no claims have been made. For a cancellation at any other stage during your Policy year please contact us and we will only charge you for the time on cover unless a claim has been made in which case we will keep the full premium.

b) Our right to cancel

We have the right to cancel the Policy by giving you seven days' notice in writing sent by recorded delivery to your last known address explaining our reason for doing so. We will only charge you for the time on cover unless a claim has been made in which case we will keep the full premium. Valid reasons for cancelling include but are not limited to:

- (i) non payment of premium, or any instalment of the premium;
- (ii) where we reasonably suspect fraud;
- (iii) where you fail to co-operate with us or fail to give us information or documentation that we reasonably request;

- (vii) where you use threatening, abusive, intimidating or bullying behaviour towards our staff or suppliers.

6. Misrepresentation

It is your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us if we ask you a question in connection with your insurance or we ask you to confirm or amend details. If the misrepresentation is deliberate or reckless we may:

- a) refuse all claims
- b) cancel the policy from the beginning and retain all premiums paid.

7. Premium payment by instalments

- a) if you agree to pay your premium by monthly direct debit or a similar arrangement you must pay any deposit we ask for and make sure your instalment payments are kept up to date;
- b) if you make a claim, we may deduct any outstanding amounts due to us before paying the claim

Claims Conditions

For Motor Legal Expenses claims please see Section E. For all other Sections the following conditions apply.

1. Your duties

When an incident occurs that may result in a claim you shall:

- (a) tell us as soon as you become aware;
- (b) take all practicable steps to recover property lost and otherwise minimise the claim;
- (c) tell the police immediately if the damage is caused by thieves, malicious persons, vandals, or as a result of riot, civil commotion, strike or labour disturbance;
- (d) within 30 days give us any information we require and continue to provide us with any information and assistance we require before or after we pay your claim under the Policy;
- (e) not make or allow to be made on your behalf any admission, offer, promise, payment or indemnity without our consent;
- (f) forward to us every letter, claim, writ, summons and process immediately upon receipt without acknowledgement and advise us as soon as you have any knowledge of any impending prosecution, inquest or inquiry in connection with that event.

No claim shall be payable unless these conditions have been complied with and in the event of non-compliance any payment on account of the claim already made by us shall be repaid to us.

2. Conduct of Claim

We will be entitled to the full conduct and control of the defence or settlement of any claim from a third party and no admission of liability may be made without our written consent.

We may take, start, take over, defend and conduct any legal action in your name or that of any other person insured by your Policy.

We may prosecute in your name for our benefit any claim for payment or damages. We will have full discretion in the conduct and settlement of any such action.

3. Fraudulent Claims

If you make any claim which is fraudulent or false no payment shall be made. We may, by giving notice to you, cancel the Policy with effect from the date of the fraudulent act.

4. Right of Recovery

If the law of any country in which we are providing cover requires us to settle a claim which we would not otherwise have paid, we reserve the right to recover this amount from you or from the person who incurred the liability.

5. Other Insurance

We will not make any payment for any claim that results from an incident that is covered by any other insurance that you hold, in the event that any other policy that you hold with any other insurance company excludes payment under that policy where more than one by insurance exists.

If such other policy has a provision which prevents it from contributing in a like manner, the most we will pay will be the amount in excess of that which would have been payable under the other policy had this Policy not been in force.
